

DECEMBER 24 MASS SCHEDULE CHANGE

Fortunately, Christmas falls on a Monday fairly seldom, depending on how Leap Year affects the calendar. But with a full schedule of Masses for Christmas on the afternoon and evening of December 24 (Christmas Eve) and on Christmas day itself, we're presented with a scheduling challenge. So, after discussing this at the Parish Pastoral Council meeting and with the Pastoral Staff, it was determined that there would be one small change in the Mass schedule for the Fourth Sunday of Advent on December 24.

Masses that Sunday morning—for the Fourth Sunday of Advent—will be at 7:30, 8:30 and 10:00a.m. only; for just this one day, there will NOT be a Mass at 11:30a.m. Hopefully those who regularly attend that Mass can manage to get to one of the other four Masses for that Fourth Sunday of Advent before returning in very short order for Mass on either Christmas Eve or Christmas Day.
