

GAVIN COYLE RETURNS FOR CHRISTMAS

It was early November and already I was being asked if Gavin Coyle was returning this year for a Christmas Concert. Well, the answer is yes! Gavin will be here on Tuesday, December 19th at 7:00p.m. in the church to help us prepare for the wondrous celebration of the Incarnation.

As always, there is no charge for this amazing musical night, but a freewill offering will be requested. And Gavin's CD's will be available once again for $15.00 (checks made payable to "St. Joseph's"). If we're lucky, Gavin's new CD will be available, but we may have to wait until March for that if there was any delay in production.

So take a break from any hectic Christmas preparations and give yourself the gift of a memorable musical night on December 19.
