

THANKS... THANKS... THANKS

Thanks to another cold but snow-free day, the Winter Picnic went off without a hitch and everyone there – as far as I could tell – thoroughly enjoyed the good food & drink, the great music, the impressive prizes and the congenial company of family, friends and fellow parishioners.

But none of it would have been possible without the hard work and dedication of the Winter Picnic Committee members and the volunteers who set up, sold tickets, managed rooms, served the food and drink and then cleaned up on Sunday. Whatever profit we made (still to be determined) wouldn't have been possible without the generosity of those who came to support this event or without the creativity and generosity of those who donated items for the baskets and the silent auction.

So thanks to all who helped in any way to make this annual event a success once again. Remember that the profits from the Winter Picnic benefit the ministries of the parish, and especially the Catholic formation of our young people in both the school and CCD. But it's just as important for us to gather as a parish community to enjoy one another's company on a cold winter night.
